RECEIVED

June 6, 1962

Dear President Kennedy:

I wish to thank you for including me on the list of guests for the most pleasant luncheon on June 5, on the occasion of the visit of His Beatitude Archbishop Markarios, President of the Republic of Cyprus.

I felt greatly honored to be among those privileged to be at the luncheon at the White House and I was pleased to meet once again a number of acquaintances for whom I have developed a great deal of respect during the past several years.

Sincerely,

George Docking
